I was hoping that the revised draft would be with me this evening to check against what was agreed but no sign of it yet.

I did meet Kathryn Silk after the meeting and we discussed the "Talgarth Council" clause - this was the one area that we were not able to gain any ground but I think that Kathryn has understood why and is comfortable with the position (case of the blind leading the blind I am afraid).

I hope to forward the draft and comments to you tomorrow, although this may be late on in the evening as I am working till approx 10pm. With regards to the timetable for completion we are looking at a deadline of 9 January 2009 I hope that this is alright in terms of authorised signatories etc.

I hope that you had a productive time in London with Morag and will now get the opportunity to forget about work and start enjoying Christmas.

Kind regards

Alice

Alice,
I heard you did a fantastic job today – well done. I can't wait to see the draft!
Thank you so much for all your hard work.
Rhiannon
